OCTOBER 9. 1740. NUMB. 617.

The Pennſylvania GAZETTE

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

LONDON, July 1.

STOCKS begin to fall, and our Apprehenſions from France increaſe; as if, notwithſtaading her promiſed Neutrality, ſhe intends nothing leſs than a War. For it's ſaid her Embaſſador has intimated to the Secretaries of State, That if Sir John Norris attacks the Ferrol Squadron, the moſt Chriſtian King will find himſelf indiſpenſibly oblig'd to aſſiſt Spain. The ſaid Embaſſador is preparing to return Home, and the Earl of Waldegrave has already left Paris.

'Tis much regretted, that we did not at firſt proceed with the wiſh'd for Vigour and Spirit againſt Spain, eſpecially as Matters now ſtand: For if what is ſaid of France is fact, there may be Reaſon for an Alteration of Meaſures, and Sir John Norris to continue with his Squadron at Spithead, tho' his Sailing is ſaid to be fixed to the 20th Inſtant; and that this ſeems to be the Caſe, appears by our preſent Preparations: Several Regiments of Horſe and Foot are forthwith to be raiſed. They work inceſſantly to ſupply the Fleet deſtin'd for the ſecret Expedition with all things requiſite, particularly Cradles for the wounded Men. Two Men of War of 100 Guns, three of 90, two of 80, three of 70, two of 60, two of 50, five of 44, ſix of 20 Guns, two Fireſhips of 8 Guns each, two Bomb-Veſſels of 6 Carriages, 8 Swivel Guns and 2 Mortars each; one Store Ship of 20 Guns, and four Sloops are to be put in Commiſſion. And Commodore Anſon in the Centurion, and four more Men of War, with the Wager Store Ship, having aboard 1000 Marines, a Train of Artillery, Arms, &c. will ſoon ſail from Portſmouth for America. So that we are now like to have bloody Work.

Mean time, to the great Joy of our Merchants, &c. the Admiralty has Advice of the brave Vernon's taking Chagre, (upon the River Chagre, which River in a Manner divides Mexico from Peru) whereby the Paſſage to Panama is ſecured, there being no material Fortifications to obſtruct it. 'Tis ſaid he got a Booty of above 100,000 l. Sterling. This River is Navigable up till within eight Leagues of Panama; which, and the Town of Chagre were once taken by the Buccaneers under Capt. Morgan. The Port of Chagre is about 30 Miles South of Porto Bello; and it is down this River that the Spaniards ſend the bulky Goods from Panama, as they do their Gold and Silver by Land to Porto Bello.

July 2. Yeſterday the Merchants receiv'd Advice, that the Hamburgh Pacquet, bound from Leghorn for Liſbon, with three other Ships of the Engliſh Nation are taken by the Spaniards, and carried into St. Sebaſtians.

Yeſterday it was reported that the Fleet of Ships, conſiſting of 150 Sail, which ſail'd a few Days ſince from Portſmouth under the Convoy of three of his Majeſty's Ships of War, are ſtopt at St. Helen's, in order to be convoy'd by the Squadron under the Command of Sir John Norris.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland has order'd all the private Centinels in his Regiment to be inſtructed in Back-Sword, and the other Parts of the Science of Defence.

By a Letter receiv'd by Yeſterday's Mail from Cadiz, dated from the Carraccas, Jan 11. N. S. from Charles Marcy, Maſter of the Oratava, an Account is given, that on the 4th of October, O. S. in the Latitude of the Madeiras, about ſixty Leagues to the Weſtward of the ſaid Iſlands, he was taken by a Biſcay Ship, mounting fifty Guns: The Cargo conſiſted of 140 Pipes of Wine, and 10 Bags of Orchella. They ſtript the Maſter in ſuch a Manner that when he was order'd before the Magiſtrates, he had ſcarce Cloaths left to cover him. He had been in Priſon ſome time, but by the Kindneſs of Mr. Butcher, one of the South-Sea Factors, alſo a Priſoner at large, he was very kindly reliev'd with what he wanted. He was in hopes of getting at Liberty by going Pilot of a Ship belonging to Don Franciſco de Tranques, bound up to the Iſland. The ſaid Veſſel had taken four Engliſh Prizes before.

July 3. The Talk concerning an Exchange of the Iſlands of Corſica and Sardinia, is renew'd, and that Spain offers the Genoeſe 500,000 Dollars, as an Equivalent for the former.

Agreeable to what we lately mentioned, the Royal Yachts are order'd to be got ready to ſail for Holland to wait his Majeſty's Return from Hanover, from whence an Expreſs is arrived with his Majeſty's Orders for the Fleet to ſail forthwith upon the Secret Expedition.

We have had much Talk concerning our 20 Gun Ships, but we do not yet hear of their being put to Sea.

The War ſeems, at laſt, to put on a more ſerious Aſpect: Certain great Lords, 'tis given out, have added their Weight to it; and appear'd, in earneſt, Champions for the Honour of their Country: Beſides which, the Preparations on this Side of the Water, ſeem to have given a real Alarm to certain Powers on the other: Who, finding the political Legerdemain of Treaties no lonlonger effectual, think of attempting by Force what they deſpair of attaining any other way.

The French Merchants, reſident in London, have ſettled their Affairs, and ſeem to be preparing againſt all Events.

They are hard at Work, Night and Day, Sundays not excepted, to ſupply the Fleet with Cradles, &c. for the wounded Seamen: ſo that after all we are like to have bloody Work.

July 5. Many People are of Opinion, that the ſo-long-talk'd-of Expedition, to prepare for which ſo many Months have been waſted, ſo many Tranſports hir'd, ſo many Regiments raiſed, and ſuch vaſt Sums laid out, will, at laſt, be made to the Pacifick-Sea.

July 8. Letters from Gibraltar ſay, that the 12000 Spaniſh Troops which are encamp'd about four Leagues from that Place, keep themſelves very quiet: That great Sickneſs rages in the Garriſon, and for fear the Illneſs ſhould prove Epidemical, the Governor has forbid the Soldiery from drinking certain Liquours very hurtful to them.

They are very buſy at the Tower in ſhipping Field Carriages, Coehorns, &c. for the Expedition under Lord Cathcart: Tho' ſome aſſure, his Lordſhip will not embark till he receives a Commiſſion from the King. Mean time the Sailors at St. Helen's are carefully taught the Exerciſe of ſmall Arms, &c. that they may act upon Shore on Occaſion.

We hear there are Letters in Town adviſing, that the Earl of Waldegrave is about returning from the Court of France. And 'tis ſaid a certain great Peer will embark in a Day or two on an important Affair to the Court of Ruſſia.

The Merchants are in great Pain for the Liſbon Pacquet, for which 20 per Cent. Inſurance was given this Day.

We know not when the King will return.

By Letters brought over by Sir Chaloner Ogle, we are poſitively aſſured that the Spaniards began the Siege of Gibraltar on the 17th of June, and the Army before it was reinforced with 10,000 Men. The Garriſon is in a very good Condition, nor are they under any Apprehenſions was the whole Force of Spain to attack them, while there is an Engliſh Fleet in the Mediterranean.--If it is not given away by Stratagem, it cannot be taken by Force.

Various are the Opinions concerning the Expedition of Sir John Norris, (ſome of which are very extraordinary) tho' the moſt probable is, that he intends to deſtroy the Spaniſh Fleet at Ferrol; but one ſingularly remarkable and very odd, ſeems to prevail much among the unthinking part of the Town, viz. 'That he is to take Poſſeſſion of the Iſland of Corſica for his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland. The Favourers of this Notion do not conſider that ſuch an Attempt would ſpread the Flames of War over the greateſt part of Europe; a Proceeding utterly inconſiſtent with the pacifick Diſpoſitions of the Britiſh Court.

'Tis certain Admiral Norris continues Wind-bound at Spithead; or whom the Lords of the Regency ſent yeſterday an Expreſs; who, when joined by the Admirals Cavendiſh, Balchen and Ogle, will command 35 Men of War. And how remarkable is it, that there is a Prince of the Blood aboard. What then can obſtruct its Succeſs? Sure there never were more Ships of War, or more Men in Pay in any Reign.

BOSTON, Sept. 29.

A Very ſorrowful Accident happened here on Monday laſt, viz The Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD, intending to preach in the Rev. Mr. Checkley's Meeting Houſe, vaſt Numbers of People crowded in there before the Time of Service, and a Noiſe being made in the Gallerry by ſome Perſons breaking a Board to make a Seat, and ſome imprudent Perſon ſaying it was the Gallery's giving way, put the whole Congregation into ſuch Diſorder, that ſome jump'd out of the Galleries into the Seats below, others out of the Windows, and thoſe below preſſing haſtily to get out, ſeveral were thrown down and trod upon, whereby many were much bruis'd, and ſome had their Bones broke. Mrs. Ingerſole, Mrs. Story, and a Servant Boy, were ſo bruis'd that they died in a few Minutes, and on Tueſday laſt the Widow Shepard, and Mrs. Ruggles alſo, died of their Bruiſes, and ſome others are not out of Danger.

All the laſt Week, the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD has Preached twice every Day. On Wedneſday at Cambridge, on Thurſday Evening at Charleſtown, on Friday at Roxbury, on Saturday Evening in the Common, and and all the other times in the Meeting-Houſes in Town: Vaſt Crouds continually follow, and great Impreſſions have been made on many of the Hearers Hearts.

Laſt Saturday all the Troops raiſed here for the Expedition to the Weſt-Indies, except Capt. Winſlow's Company (who are on board, and juſt upon departing) ſail'd from Nantaſket for New-York.

Yeſterday (in the Forenoon) the Rev. Mr. Whitefield preach'd at the Old South Meeting Houſe, and after Service was over, a Collection of Five Hundred and forty four Pounds was made for the Uſe of the Orphan-Houſe in Georgia: And in the Afternoon Mr. Whitefield preach'd at the Meeting-Houſe in Brattle-Street, where a Collection of Four Hundred and ſeventy Pounds was made for the aboveſaid Uſe.

This Morning Capt. Hammet arrived here in about nine Weeks from Newcaſtle, who informs, That on the 27th of July laſt Sir John Norris ſail'd on a ſecret Expedition with 26 Men of War, which is juſt the Number of Spaniſh Men of War in the Port of Ferrol, whither ſome People think Sir John is bound.

NEW-YORK, October 6.

The Veſſels drove on Shore in the late Huricane at Antigua the 31ſt. of Auguſt, 1740, are as follows, viz.

The Ship Catharine of London, George Monereff Commander, juſt Loaded, had 250 Hhds of Sugar on board.

Ship Bethel, Martin Long Commander, had 35 Hhds of Sugar.

Snow Nancy, William Lithgo Maſter, bound for Carolina, had 120 Hhds of Sugar.

Snow Neptune, George Gibbs, bound for Briſtol.

Brigt. Friendſhip, Joſeph Foreſt, for Ireland; part of her Cargo ſaved.

Sloop Wheel of Fortune, Ebenezer Dimon.

Scooner Elizabeth and Anne, William Davis, bound for Carolina; and ſeveral Sugar driving Veſſels loſt about the Iſland.

The following Veſſels rid out the Storm.

The Hull Gally, John Gorman for London.

The

The London Frigat, John Roſkal for London.
The St. John, John Farril for London.
The Brigt. Charming Moll, Wm. Maſon for Ireland.
The William, Thomas Eaſton for Briſtol.
The Ellen, Henry Brown for Briſtol.
The Brigt Liberty, Henry Simons for Scotland.

The Sloop Mary, and Sloop Frances bound to Philadelphia, were got off; and the Scooner Tryal Tobias Lear for Piſcataway got off.

The Station Ship was on Shore, but likely to be got off again; alſo a Store Ship deſigned for Admiral Vernon, which it is fear'd, will be of little Service to him, being about half full of Water, and no Proſpect of getting her off.

By a Perſon who was on Board the Sloop Adventure, Capt. Tucker (ſome time miſſing) we are informed, that the ſaid Sloop was unfortunately caſtaway by Crooked Iſlands, in her Paſſage to this Place, but none were loſt.

We have Advice from Maryland, that a Veſſel was arrived there who brought with him the Crew of a Veſſel bound from New-York to Liſbon with Wheat, which foundered at Sea; but the People betaking themſelves to the Long Boat, were happily ſaved.

About 12 Days ago, a Snow from Belfaſt in Ireland, bound for Philadelphia, put in here for Proviſions; ſhe came out with 190 Servants, Paſſengers, &c. buried above 20 in the Voyage, and the reſt Sick. They had 12 Weeks Paſſage, and when they came in here, were almoſt all ſtarv'd, having then but two days Proviſion on Board.
